

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT POLICY

Sample Organization | Human Resources

1. Purpose

The performance management process aligns employee objectives with organizational goals and supports continuous development.

2. Goal Setting

Employees and managers should establish measurable objectives at the beginning of the performance cycle.

3. Performance Reviews

Formal performance reviews are conducted according to the organization's review calendar.

4. Continuous Feedback

Managers should provide regular feedback rather than relying only on formal review periods.

5. Performance Improvement

When performance does not meet agreed expectations, the manager may establish a documented improvement plan with clear objectives and timelines.

6. Development

Employees may identify training, mentoring, or development opportunities with their managers.

7. Promotion Consideration

Promotion decisions may consider sustained performance, role requirements, demonstrated skills, business needs, and organizational processes.

8. Documentation

Performance discussions and agreed actions should be documented through approved systems.

9. Employee Feedback

Employees may provide comments or feedback as part of the review process.

10. Policy Reference

Policy Owner: Human Resources. Review Cycle: Annual. Policy Version: 2026.1.